Expansion of network of schools for blind and handicapped

426. SHRIMATI BASANTI SARMA: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of steps being taken by Government to expand the network of schools for the blind and handicapped in the country;

(b) the details of financial grants given to these schools during the last three years, State-wise; and

(c) the steps taken for utilization of this fund?

THE MINISTER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (DR. SATYANARAYAN JATIYA): (a) Under the Scheme to Promote Volunatary Action for Persons with Disabilities assistance is given to volunatary organizations for taking up projects for welfare of the blind and handicapped in the area of education, training including vocational training and provision of rehabilitation services. There has been significant growth in the number of organizations and amount of assistance given under the Scheme as a result of the encouragement given to voluntary action for setting up projects for welfare of blind and handicapped including schools. National Institutes, which are apex level institutions and expert bodies in different areas of disability also sponsor and support special schools in their respective area of disability.

(b) A statement indicating the number of organizations assisted and amount of grant released under the Scheme to Promote Voluntary Action for Persons with Disabilities is annexed (See below).

(c) In the Scheme to Promote Voluntary Action for Persons with disabilities, grantee organizations are required to furnish audited accounts of the project and the organization as a whole, and audited utilization certificate of the previous grant released for continuation of further assistance. The Scheme also provides for requirements of satisfactory inspection report and recommendation of the inspecting agency before release of 2nd instalment of grant in aid. This facilitates monitoring of utilization of funds.
